Contest Details

The 8 selected contestants will perform on stage in costume/character for up to one minute in front of a panel of judges. You may provide pre-recorded music to be played during your performance (on a CD) with a 60 second limit.

Our Emcee will read your introduction (Max 75 word limit). Final contestants must submit the introduction with your payment by May 1, 2010.

You must be at least 18 years old by June 5, 2010 to compete.

MHC representatives, corporate sponsors, media representatives and guest speakers will serve as judges for the pageant.

The pageant will be held on Saturday, June 5th, 2010 starting at 9:30 p.m. at the MHC at the Hyatt Regency. You must check in at the door by 8:30 pm.

All contestants will be asked to sign a Model Release form.

Duties of the "Queen"

Upon appointment, the Queen is expected to serve as an official MHC ambassador and greet guests throughout the remainder of the evening and at the convention activities on Sunday.

She should be available for photos with attendees and interviews promoting the convention. Additionally, she can promote the MHC convention and the industry by wearing the banner while visiting events or conventions throughout the year, on a voluntary basis.

Once you are Ms Midwest Haunt, you are always Ms Midwest Haunt. The sash/ banner and tiara are yours to keep. You may wear them with pride indefinitely. We hope you will return in future years of the MHC and wear them.

Incentive/Contest Prizes

- Each of the 8 contestants will receive an assortment of prizes from sponsors and vendors.

The first place winner will receive the following:

- o $100 cash
- o Major prizes from pageant sponsors and vendors
- o A Ms Scary Midwest sash
- o A Queen's Tiara
- o Complimentary admission to MHC weekend events in 2011.

First runner up will receive the following:

- o $50 cash
- o Prizes from sponsors and vendors

All 8 contestants will receive prizes.
